

The Fundsquare Team

Olivier Portenseigne, Managing Director & Chief Commercial Officer

Olivier is Managing Director. He is also Chief Commercial Officer, responsible for the business development and product management of the company.

He has long experience in the fund industry and he previously held various management positions in major asset servicing companies where he was responsible for the setup and development of a fund distribution platform, head of transfer agency and global head of product management for these two services. Olivier is also member of the ALFI TA steering Committee and Fund Platform Group.

Maxime Aerts, Chief Operating Officer

Maxime was responsible for the implementation of the platform from 1 April 2012. He is now in charge of managing daily operations.

He has had numerous experiences in the banking and fund industry and he previously held a management position in a leading consultant firm in Luxembourg as senior manager, responsible for the development of the consulting services for the investment funds industry.